

The map illustrates the Tipton area, a conurbation in the West Midlands of England. It is divided into several distinct regions, each highlighted with a different color and labeled with a title. The regions include:

- Shirland & Wingerworth South (Green area, top left)
- Clay Cross & Tupton (Orange area, center)
- North Wingfield, Pilsley & Morton (Blue area, bottom right)

Other labeled areas include Sutton (top right), Temple Normanton (top right), and Higham (bottom center). The map shows a dense network of roads, with major roads like the A6375 and A6376 clearly marked. The River Tame is a prominent feature, flowing through the center of the conurbation. Various landmarks, including schools (e.g., Tupton Primary School, North Wingfield Primary School), hospitals (e.g., Clay Cross Hospital), and parks (e.g., Moorpark Wood, Stretton Park) are also indicated. The map provides a comprehensive overview of the local geography and infrastructure of the Tipton area.
